For Immediate Release

EICS' Community Engagement Session – March 20, 2014

Sherwood Park, AB – Elk Island Catholic Schools (EICS) welcomes all interested stakeholders to join the conversation on March 20, to plan ahead for continued quality Catholic education in Camrose. As our vibrant Catholic schools continue to experience substantial growth, EICS invites discussion on its Camrose Capital Plan to effectively address increased enrolment opportunities in the future.

EICS' Board of Trustees encourages all interested community members to attend. The event will include information presentations and opportunities for community feedback.

In attendance will be the Honourable Verlyn Olson, QC, members of Camrose City Council and EICS' Trustees and Senior Administration. The event is open to the public and everyone is welcome.
